Application Fees

A nonrefundable application fee must be submitted online with each new application for admission before it will be processed. The application fee for U.S. citizens and permanent residents is $65; for international applicants the fee is $80.

Auditing courses

Students are expected to meet all financial obligations to the University by specified due dates in order to maintain their enrollment. Payment in full or Payment Plan participation is required for a student to maintain each semester's registration. Students who have not completed payment for a term before the bill date of the next term will lose their ability to register for subsequent terms.

Students will be notified via their @crimson email when a student account bill is available to review and pay. No paper bills will be mailed. Students will log in via their myBama account to view their account activity and make payment. Instructions for making payments can be found at Make a Payment or by viewing our How to Videos.
