

EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, ED.S.

The EdS degree in educational leadership requires a minimum of 30 hours and provides coursework for those seeking Class AA Instructional Leader certification or Class AA Teacher Leader certification. Additionally, a concentration in School Library Media Specialist, leading to Class AA Library Media Specialist certification, is also offered.

Admission and degree requirements for the Graduate School and for the College of Education are detailed in the relevant sections of this catalog. Admission and degree requirements are subject to change and may be under revision at the time of publication. Please check with the Office of Student Services and Certification or the Department of Educational Leadership, Policy, and Technology Studies for the most current information.

The Graduate Catalog is published annually. State-approved program checklists may be updated more frequently and are thus likely to provide the most up-to-date information about requirements. A current program checklist may be obtained from the program office. Students should consult their advisors each semester before registering.

Admissions

See the Admission Criteria section of this catalog for more information.
