EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP, ED.S.

The EdS degree in educational leadership requires a minimum of 30 hours and provides coursework for those seeking Class AA Instructional Leader certification or Class AA Teacher Leader certification. Additionally, a concentration in School Library Media Specialist, leading to Class AA Library Media Specialist certification, is also offered.

Admission and degree requirements for the Graduate School and for the College of Education are detailed in the relevant sections of this catalog. Admission and degree requirements are subject to change and may be under revision at the time of publication. Please check with the Office of Student Services and Certification or the Department of Educational Leadership, Policy, and Technology Studies for the most current information.

The Graduate Catalog is published annually. State-approved program checklists may be updated more frequently and are thus likely to provide the most up-to-date information about requirements. A current program checklist may be obtained from the program office. Students should consult their advisors each semester before registering.

Admissions

See the Admission Criteria section of this catalog for more information.

Class AA Instructional Leader (P-12) Certification

To be considered, applicants must qualify for regular admission to the program.

In addition to the minimum Graduate School admission requirements, to be considered for regular admission, applicants must:

1. hold a valid Alabama Class A Professional Educator certificate in Instructional Leadership or a valid Class A Professional Leadership certificate
2. meet one of the following criteria:
   - currently serving as a superintendent, assistant or associate superintendent, principal, assistant principal, supervisor (any subject and/or grade level), administrator of career and technical education, coordinator or evaluator;
   - three years of experience in an instructional leadership position; OR
   - demonstrate each of the abilities in the Class A Instructional Leadership standards

Applicants must also meet the fingerprinting requirement for background clearance.

Admission to the Graduate School is not equivalent to “unconditional admission” to a state-approved educator preparation program.

In order to maintain compliance with the Alabama Board of Education, admission and program requirements are subject to change. Admission forms and requirements, specific program parameters, departmental policies and contact information can be found at the departmental website. Students should consult with their advisors before registering each semester.

Curricular Requirements
