Cyber Criminology Courses

CC201 Introduction to Cyber Criminology
Hours 3
This course will introduce students to the traditional and contemporary forms of cyber crime, including hacking, insider threat, Internet child pornography use, cyber bullying, and cyber terrorism. Not only will students learn how computers can be either the target or tool in cyber crimes, this course will examine such crimes from both social and behavioral science perspectives, such as the personality traits associated with computer deviance. Finally, this course will provide a general overview of the digital forensic investigation as well as the analysis of digital evidence. No prior knowledge in any of these areas is required.

CC290 Special Topics in Cyber Crime
Hours 3
Examination of selected issues in cyber security in the United States and throughout the world.

CC301 Cyber Law and Policy
Hours 3
This course examines cyber criminology from a law and policy perspective, including its impact on Fourth and Fifth Amendment jurisprudence and the changing conceptions of privacy and identity. Topics will focus on the effects of cyber criminology on how criminal laws are conceptualized, enforced, and prosecuted. A central part of the course is a Moot Court component in which students will write a legal brief and argue their side of a cyber-related legal case in front of a panel of lawyers and law students acting as judges.
Prerequisite(s): CC 201

CC395 Internship
Hours 1-9
An opportunity for students to conduct career exploration and build a record of experience in the field of cyber criminology and digital forensics. To take this course students must obtain permission from the instructor for a specific number of hours and pass a background check.
Prerequisite(s): CC 201 A maximum of 3 hours can be used toward the minor. Instructor must approve the number of hours and the student cannot deviate from those hours without permission of instructor.

CC401 Law Enforcement in the Digital Age
Hours 3
This course examines the role that technology plays in modern-day policing, and provides students with a detailed overview of how the cyber, digital, and technological worlds have impacted policing historically. W
Hours 3
This course addresses topical issues relating to health, medicine, and society. The course will cover four fundamental points: how society shapes individual understandings of what it means to be healthy, how people behave when they are ill, how society produces differential patterns of health and illness, and how medicine is practiced in the United States.
Prerequisite(s): Sociology 101
Writing

SOC480 Death and Dying
Hours 3
This course examines death and dying from a sociological perspective.
In contrast to clinicians (who view dying as a biological/physiological process), or psychologists and/or social workers (who manage grief and loss) we will examine death as a social process that varies by culture, context and historical moment. Our focus will be on the social organization of death itself, with emphasis placed on micro-interactional roles and norms as well as macro-structural organizational and institutional dimensions of death and dying.
Prerequisite(s): SOC 101

SOC490 Seminar In Sociology
