

COURSES FOR MUSIC

Music Academics Courses

MUS100 Music Fundamentals

Hours 3

A foundational course in music focused on the rudiments of music and tonal theory. Topics include clefs, pitches, rhythm, meter, scales, keys, intervals, and triads. The class is open to non-majors if space permits.

MUS115 Theory I: Voice Leading

Hours 4

Study of the fundamental elements of music theory, including rhythm, melody, consonance, dissonance, and functional harmony. We explore these through counterpoint exercises in two, three, and four voices. The prerequisite for this course is MUS 100. A placement exam is available. Contact the department for details.

Prerequisite(s): Prerequisite: MUS 100 with the grade of C- or better

MUS117 Theory II: Diatonic Harmony

Hours 4

Study of the diatonic principles of the common-practice era, including voice leading in triads and seventh chords, basic harmonic syntax, and contrapuntal embellishment. We explore these through four-part writing, analysis, harmonic dictation, keyboard exercises, and sight singing.

Prerequisite(s): MUS 115 with the grade of C- or better.

MUS121 Intro To Listening

FA

Hours 3

This course surveys the history of Western music. Musical styles and genres from the 1600s through present-day will be covered. This course will not only examine the music of the baroque, classical, and romantic periods, but will also delve into the musical worlds of musical theater, film, jazz, the mainstream, as well as other innovative ideas of the 20th and 21st centuries. In addition, this course will focus on teaching students to become active listeners rather than passive hearers in order to discover the beauty, intricacy, and greatness of music from all styles and eras. Students will have the opportunity to apply learned listening concepts by attending live concert events during the semester. No musical experience or training is necessary for this course.

Fine Arts

MUS122 Honors Introduction to Listening

FA, UH

Hours 3

This course will explore one of the fundamental modes of aesthetic expression, music. Presupposing no formal training on the part of the students, we will explore aural skills and tools for recognition through study of music fundamentals and masterworks of Euro-American art music from the Baroque era (1600s) to the present. At the same time, students will be given an overview of the development of Western art music, and critically think how that development relates to larger issues of culture and society. This course is a combination of both online work for which the students are responsible outside of class time, as well as in-class work during the class meeting times each week. Please pay close attention to the online course deadlines as we move through the semester.
